Wedgfield is a “DEED RESTRICTED” Community. All residents, whether Wedgfield Homeowners Association (WHOA) members or not, are subject to the Deeded Restrictions. The (WHOA) is responsible for the Deed Restrictions within the Wedgfield Community. The area of responsibility is the “City Area” and the “Estates Area”. The “Reserves” has its own deeded restrictions.

Please Read the Following Information Carefully

New Home Construction: Before designing your new home please make sure of the Square Footage requirements attached to your lot. There are different areas that require different square footage for homes. Plans must be submitted and approved by the WHOA prior to going to Orange County for a permit.

There is a one-time $250.00 (New Home Construction) application fee for plan review and approval.

Plan Approval Is Not an Option – IT IS MANDATORY.

Any homes started prior to Wedgfield Architectural Control Committee approval are subject to fines up to $1,000.00, plus all attorney fees. (Article III, Section 3.5)
